The Backstory... Kamelia and Jacob met in May 2016 in the seaside community of La Jolla, California. Kamelia was living one block away from Jacob's beach house, and they met while Kamelia was out walking her dog. Just one month later, they booked their first trip together- a week in Turks and Caicos. This jet-setting couple has spent the last two years traveling the world together. They got engaged last month in The Maldives, and in their minds, the only way to tie the knot is just the two of them in the most romantic city in the world- Paris.

Their Dream Wedding... Kamelia and Jacob want to do an epic elopement without any distractions from family or friends. They love to be the center of attention, and want their big day to be all about them and only them. They want their big day to be Moulin Rouge-themed...in fact, they want the real Moulin Rouge as their venue. Kamelia wants to drop down on a trapeze and be the “sparkling diamond,” and Jacob wants to be the ringmaster and wear a long tux and top hat. They want their very own “Hollywood moment” with the spotlight on just the two of them, but with lots of “wow” moments and glam.

Challenges for Billy and Paolo... Kamelia is Type-A to the max and will never shy away from giving her honest opinion when something is not perfect... especially when it comes to the photography. Billy will be tasked with executing a big Moulin Rouge wedding that is still elegant, and Paolo will be in charge of creating the perfect dress for a bride who sent back her engagement ring three times. The pressure will be on for Billy and Paolo, as Kamelia is constantly reminding everyone that she has a brand and reputation to uphold. She knows her social media followers are dying to see what her wedding looks like, and she needs it to be flawless. She spends every single day creating content for her websites and wants nothing more than to have someone else worry about the details for her special day. Although they want to only focus on each other, she knows that giving up that control will be nearly impossible...and she will most definitely drive Jacob crazy in the process of trying to keep her anxiety of the unknown at bay.
